

Short Term Vacation Rental Report

Marc Saltzberg, Vice President, Venice Neighborhood Council

11/7/2013

The vacation rental business has been part of Venice since there was a Venice . it is part of our heritage as a community and part of our economy today. Over the years, many people have taken part in the business, from stock is disappearing from the market - that rents are going up as supply diminishes and that shortages may be developing. This is problems we don't know much about. It could be minor - or it could be huge - we don't have any hard number - nor does the city have the data.

It seems to be clear that non-
